Labor Rallied Against Right-to-Work in New Hampshire!

Despite the -10° temperatures on Wednesday, nearly 200 labor supporters turned out to protest HB 238-FN, the “Right-to-Work” bill in New Hampshire. In addition to the rally, over 1,400 individuals registered their opposition. These impressive actions are thanks to your efforts!

Due to the large volume of testimonies submitted, the House Labor Committee has postponed their vote on the bill, which is now set for Tuesday, January 28th at 10:00 AM.

NEXT STEPS

Prior to the House Labor Committee’s vote, a labor rally will be held. Details are below.

WHEN: Tuesday, January 28, 2025 from 9:00 AM – 10:00 AM
 WHERE: 33 North State Street, Concord, NH 03301
 NOTES: The rally will be held outside. For updates regarding the rally, please visit the Facebook Event Page (usw.to/57w).

Stay tuned for more information following the House Labor Committee vote!
