

SIGN UP FOR THE USW'S ELECTION CONNECTION NEWSLETTER TODAY!

Most newspapers and local TV stations don't report on how local, state and federal elections impact Steelworker jobs and the benefits we've negotiated.

But, when it comes to understanding the connection between the decisions of lawmakers and our rights as workers, knowledge is power.

That's why our union publishes a monthly email newsletter, Election Connection, which shares information about how our contracts, retirement security and rights as workers are connected to the outcomes of state and federal elections.

As an Election Connection subscriber, you'll receive monthly email updates about:

- USW activists' efforts to help elect pro-worker majorities in state and federal government,
- USW members who are running for or hold elected offices,
- Pro-worker, pro-union legislators our union helped elect, and how they are fighting for us,
- Upcoming elections, and their impact on union members, and all workers,
- And more...
